Farm News and Reports

UNDER FHA PROGRAM—

Farmers Study Last Years Operations

Prospects of increased efficiency in farming operations during the coming season and evidence of progress last year are showing up on several of the County farms as the result of systematic check ups on the past year's operations, James S. Bridgen, Farmers Home Administration county supervisor reports.

At the end of each farm business year, those farm families using FHA credit to buy, improve or operate their farms analyze their past year's business. After noting the strong and weak points in their operations, they make plans for better farming during the coming year. Assistance in this analysis and planning is supplied by the FHA county office personnel.

Arrangements to use this service in connection with loans advanced by the agency are part of each family's agreement with FHA. This service is known as the year-end analysis.

High Quality Seed Is Plentiful This Spring

AUBURN — Spring planting season dawns brightly for Alabama farmers, who find plenty of seed with above average quality, and best of all, no price rise. API Extension Agronomist Melvin Moore said this week that seed buyers and producers are blessed with a big, high quality seed crop of most recommended varieties. Prices are about the same as last year, or in some cases a little lower on peanut and some hybrid corn seed.

Farmers are warned not to wait until the last minute to buy seed. The supply of new recommended varieties is always limited and then, too, seed prices are usually higher at planting time.

Exceptions prove the rule and one in the midst of the plentiful seed is Auburn 50 variety, Flossy, the notorious hurricane which destroyed so much of last year's cotton. Found this variety too cheap for best. So now farmers want to plant this storm resistant seed and requests are coming in from other counties. However, Flossy's dampness did ruin much of the seed crop, cutting the supply.

Moore urged farmers to put in only crops and varieties recommended for their locality and to leave the testing for the API Agricultural Experiment Station. County agents will gladly assist farmers in deciding what to plant — varieties.

Many Farms Operate On Credit 'Til Winter

AUBURN — Most Alabama farmers need operating loans this year. Although farming has grown into a big business, many families have only limited amount of money on hand.

Thus, API Extension Economist Foy Helms declared this week that the use of credit can spell the difference between success or failure for the farmer. Sound credit use will increase production, income, and profit.

He advised farmers to only borrow more than they need. In other words let the loan go to work to pay for itself and interest charges and then return a profit, too.

Helms cautioned farmers not to borrow more than they need. And since today's farm situation calls for keeping production costs at a minimum, farmers have to draw in between actual needs and want. He pointed out that general plenty of credit is available to farmers this year but restrictions are probably just a little tighter. In any case a farmer should know his own business inside out. And he should make a summary of what he owns and owes before applying for a loan. A wise farmer will also have a written plan for the year showing his estimated expenses and income. A complete record of last year's operation furnishes a sound basis for such estimates.

A farmer will find that it pays to be prompt in repaying loans — and most farmers are. But if an unforeseen emergency arises and payments are impossible, the farmer should know his own business inside out. And he should make a summary of what he owns and owes before applying for a loan. A wise farmer will also have a written plan for the year showing his estimated expenses and income. A complete record of last year's operation furnishes a sound basis for such estimates.

Helms also recommended that farmers stick to one lender when possible and keep clear, complete and accurate records.

FARM BRIEFS

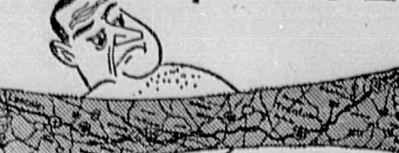

According to estimates, 26 per cent of the farm wives now do work outside of the home, so more food and clothing is being bought instead of farm-produced.

Hens in the prime of life lay eggs with thicker whites and firmer shells than when they get older.

Egg production in 1958 totaled 60.8 billion as compared with 59.4 billion in 1957.

Bloat in livestock in this country causes losses running over $40 million annually due to death and reduced production. A large percentage of these losses occur in legume pastures, but bloat also occurs in feedlots. Mosquitoes can reduce farm income. They annoy livestock and poultry as well as farm workers. Mosquitoes also transmit diseases including some serious ones such as encephalitis — sleeping sickness — to both men and animals.

By minimizing friction and carbon deposits inside your engine, Cities Service 5-D Koolmotor oil actually stretches gasoline mileage as much as 10%!

And, meanwhile, it provides the greatest protection against engine wear... for this one motor oil does the work of several ordinary oils. For quick cold-engine starting it provides light 10W oil performance... And for warm-engine cruising, the heavy 30 oil performance you need to prevent excessive friction.

See how the regular use of Chilean Soda corrects acidity and maintains favorable pH (6.5). Fertilizer used at right contained no sodium.

and you'll choose CHILEAN NITRATE OF SODA

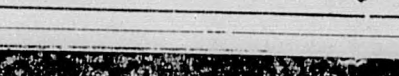

Because it's a natural fertilizer, and everybody knows a natural fertilizer is an extra good fertilizer. Extra good for crops and for the land, too. Not just for today, but for the years ahead. Chilean Soda is a rare natural combination of nitrate nitrogen, sodium, and fertilizers. Its extra values distinguish it from other nitrogenous elements, account for its remarkable efficiency, for its beneficial effect upon soil fertility and the production of fine crops.

The effectiveness of a nitrogen fertilizer for top-dressing and fast-acting nitrate—reads to work as soon as you apply it, rain or shine. But that's not all. Chilean Soda has sodium and minor elements, too. Sodium destroys soil acidity, substitutes for potash and calcium when necessary, increases the efficiency of nitrogen and helps plants make better use of other plant foods.

Where the soil is too acid where potash is deficient or where the available phosphate supply is low, where the crop needs quick help, or where one or more of the minor elements is lacking, Natural Chilean Soda has no equal.

Experience, they say, is the best teacher, and 100 years of consistently satisfactory experience with Natural Chilean Soda have demonstrated that there is nothing to compare with it for your top-dressing and side-dressing requirements. If you have any questions, we urge you to try it. If only in a small way to begin with, and see the difference for yourself. You'll find it is the most economical and efficient nitrogen fertilizer you ever used.

LOOK FOR THE BULLDOG ON THE BAG!

MR. FARMER:

YOU WANT THE BEST IN FERTILIZER!

Buy CAPITAL LOW-MOISTURE, HIGH-VALUE fertilizers. LOW-MOISTURE is essential in getting more fertilizer for less money.

We highly recommend CAPITAL ES-MIN-EL MIXTURE — Essential Mineral Element — for truck crops and orchards. CAPITAL ES-MIN-EL MIXTURE used properly will produce peaches and other fruits over grade.

We recommend 0-14-14 fertilizer with Neptachlor or Aldrin for control of FIRE ANTS.

For general crops we highly recommend CAPITAL LOW-MOISTURE 8-8-8, 4-12-12, as well as 6-8-8 and 4-10-7.

One ton of non-acid forming CAPITAL fertilizer, containing Dolomitic Limestone, will produce 25% more cotton than one ton of acid forming fertilizer made with sand. No SAND is used in CAPITAL fertilizers.

BY MRS. ROBERT CANNON

VALENTINES were very much in evidence last week as cupid shot his golden arrows into the air. What fun to find gay red hearts slipped quietly under the front door or bursting out of the mailbox, to see the expectant look on the faces of children!

The Cub Scouts really had a grand celebration honoring St. Valentine. Tobi Ollens and Grace Waters entertained for these youngsters and saw to it that the Valentine box was bursting at the seams; that the games were many and varied and that the refreshments were plentiful.

The time just flew by as we talked of mutual friends at the University of Alabama, a place quite dear to Mrs. Sanders' heart. This charming and vivacious lady is well qualified to discuss that college for she gave her talents to it for many years. We were pleased to learn that she had even been the house-mother at one time and that too was delighted to discuss that college for she gave her talents to it for many years.

DEFEAT BROCKTON, GREENVILLE & OPP—

Tigers Win 3, Lose 1 as Season Closes

The Elba Tigers continued their winning ways Tuesday night by lambasting the Bobcats by a score of 71-38. It was the Tigers' third win in a row, having defeated Greenville, New Brockton and Opp in that order. The Tigers led most of the way, although the Bobcats were no pushover and staged several rallies that kept the game a real contest.

Elba led by five points at the intermission, then increased the margin to 14 points, only to lose it in the third period and early part of the fourth. Then they opened up, making a dozen points in the last three minutes.

Elba led by five points at the intermission, then increased the margin to 14 points, only to lose it in the third period and early part of the fourth. Then they opened up, making a dozen points in the last three minutes.

Wayne Jacobs who has been performing brilliantly in recent games, suffered a recurrence of a knee injury sustained during football season, and went out of the game in the third quarter. It is reported that the injury is not considered serious and it is hoped he will be able to play in the district tournament at Enterprise next week.

Elba will play the winner of the Oark-Opp game at 6:30 Thursday evening. The rampaging Enterprise Wildcats are the probable quarter-final opponent for winner of the Oark-Opp-Elba fracas.

The Tigers closed out their current season with a game against Hartford there Friday night. The Baby Tigers were also in action Tuesday night and defeated the Opp Bobcats in an impressive style, 44-32. Elba led the way through the low-scoring but exciting contest.

King was the only Tiger to break into the double figures, pacing his team with 10 points. Other Tiger scorers were Dyess and Taylor, 8 each, Walker and Wise 4 each, Brunson and Nelson 2 each, Casey, Sanders and Matthews also saw action.
